DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

1. Claims 12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jackson (US 4,345,468) in view of Ernst (US 1,164,484). Jackson discloses a plastic sight gauge shield of such a nature that it could result from unitary molding, having first and second end portions [40,42], central portion and through-bore (Fig. 5), and first and second sidewall portions separated by first and second elongated and diametrically opposed slots, with web members (left and right portions of the outer casing that bound the sidewalls (such as 152) on Figures 4 and 5) spanning the slots to connect the diametrically opposed sidewall portions (perpendicular to 152) at locations near each end; see Figures 4 and 5 and column 4.

Art Unit: 2855

Jackson teaches the claimed invention except for the use of external threads. Ernst teaches the use of external threads on a safety gage cylinder (Figure 2). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use external threads as taught by Ernst in an invention as taught by Jackson to connect the gauge shield, since thread connections are known in the art to be both secure and removable.

2. Claims 17-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jackson (US 4,345,468) in view of Ernst (US 1,164,484) as applied to claims 12-16, further in view of Ray (US 1,157,805). Jackson teaches the claimed invention except for application to a faucet for an urn. Ray teaches the application of a sight gauge having a shield on a coffee urn faucet; see Figure 1. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use an urn faucet as taught by Ray as the application for the sight gauge shield of Jackson, to form a shielded sight gauge, since Ray teaches that urn faucets are desirably improved with a water gauge having a shield; see page 1.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-11 are allowed, since the prior art neither discloses nor makes obvious the claimed method of molding a sight gauge shield.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 11-14 and 17-19 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

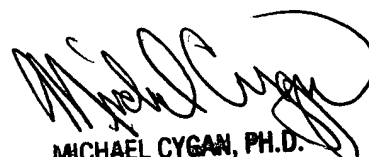

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
